After Holy Saturday and Easter Sunday is the period of Mystagogia. It means "going deeper into the mysteries" - that is, into the truths of the faith. Mystagogia describes the ancient custom of spending time with those who have received the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and first Eucharist to help them experience the depths of the truths they had accepted in their lives. Please plan to attend these classes.

The annual celebration of the Neophytes will occur in the second half of April and until May 24.
